

SCRAPLET SKEINS™

See this skein and much more, including samples, patterns, and even a Scraplet Skein-making demonstration, at For Yarn's Sake!

Join us for all the fun, Saturday, September 10, 2011, from 12:00 —3:00 p.m.

For more information about the Knittique trunk show, please call For Yarn's Sake at 503-469-9500.

Knittique's Scraplet Skeins™ trunk show at For Yarn's Sake!

Scraplet Skeins™ are made by hand-tying lengths of yarns in varying colors and textures into a single skein. All fibers are high-quality natural fibers, exotics, and novelties (including yarns hand-painted exclusively for Knittique), producing one-of-a-kind skeins.

Scraplet Skeins™ each have a specific color sequence; think of them as multi-textured versions of the ever-popular self-stripping yarns. This allows for myriad creative design possibilities, just a few of which are showcased in our line of Scraplet Skeins™ patterns. We'll have lots of samples (and patterns) at the show to inspire you!

We virtually never produce more than 5 or 6 skeins of any one colorway; each skein in a given colorway will have a consistent color sequence, although the actual yarns used will vary from skein to skein. This ensures color consistency while each skein is still one-of-a-kind. You can also order custom-colored Scraplet Skeins™; we've had many custom orders from knitters who were making capelets to coordinate with wedding color palettes, for example.

Lindy Thibodaux, Knittique owner, started making these fabulous skeins in the early 2000s, when she was running a retail yarn shop in Dayton, Ohio. She begins with a color palette or story, then combines multiple strands of yarns and many different textures to create skeins of truly unique beauty.

Lindy will be presenting the Knittique trunk show, so she can help you pick gorgeous For Yarn's Sake yarns to coordinate with your Scraplet Skeins™, answer questions, and demonstrate how Scraplet Skeins™ are made; if you arrive early enough, you can even pick out colors to have your own custom skein made on the spot! Don't miss this fabulous event!